

HILLARY CLINTON: EXTREME ON ABORTION

On April 3, 2016, Hillary Clinton had the following exchange with "Meet The Press" host Chuck Todd:

TODD: When, or if, does an unborn child have constitutional rights?

CLINTON: *Well, under our laws, currently, that is not something that exists. The unborn person doesn't have constitutional rights.*¹

Two days later, Clinton had this exchange with "The View" co-host Paula Faris:

FARIS: My question is at what point does someone have constitutional rights, and are you saying that a child, on its due date, just hours before delivery still has no constitutional rights?

CLINTON: *Under our law that is the case, Paula. I support Roe v. Wade. . . And under the law and under certainly that decision, that is the way we structure it.*²

- As a senator from New York, Hillary Clinton voted against the ban on partial-birth abortions.³
